MONDAY MORNING, JUNE 9, 1862

CROWDED OUT.—The great [illegible] of the Eastern news has crowded out all editorial matter this morning. Our readers will find the news of much interest, and its important and gratifying character will be a sufficient excuse for any deficiency elsewhere.

DEAD.—The Corvallis Union announces in an extra that it is suspended for the present for want of funds. We don't believe it will come out again. The people of Oregon have condemned treason, and that sheet could not survive it. It will not be the only one.

TELEGRAPHIC DISPATCHES.—The California State Telegraph Company are constructing the line between Marysville and Yreka. It will be finished this week. We have made arrangements for regular dispatches.

CURRY'S POPULARITY.—The Argus says: "In Geo. L. Curry's precinct just three votes were cast for secession, as follows: Curry himself, his brother in law and a hired man."

The secesh democracy have carried but one county in the State. Josephine gives Watt 23 majority, and Miller 13. They ought to move out there.

Letter from Gov. Pickering

PORTLAND, Oregon, June 7, '62.

Editor Oregonian:

In your paper of this morning an article appears headed "Protection to Emigrants," which I am glad to say, is all true, as far as it goes; but common justice requires that proper praise, and rightful merit, should always be rendered to every one, but more especially to those only to whom it is honorably due; and in this case, as an act of justice to others, it is right I should state, that immediately on my arrival at San Francisco on the 26th of May, 1862, my first business was to call upon Gen. Wright, the commanding officer of the military department of the Pacific States and Territories, expressly and officially, as my first and most important duty to request him to provide immediate and sufficient military protection to the overland emigrants coming this year to the Pacific region, as well as to the whole mining and resident population of Washington Territory; and at that interview I was highly gratified at finding that Gen. Wright had already made suitable arrangements with the military force now under his command, to provide for the protection of overland Emigrants, miners and settlers, and had entrusted the execution thereof to the care of Col. Steinberger, now stationed at Fort Vancouver, to whom Gen. Wright gave me letters of introduction, whereupon I went directly to Vancouver by the earliest conveyance, and reached that military station on the 4th instant, where I had great pleasure in finding that Col. Steinberger was fully aware of the necessity of rendering immediate protection to the overland emigrants, mining and settled population of Washington Territory and Oregon, and he had already been actively engaged in making suitable arrangements to insure that desirable object and purpose, as the late correspondence on that subject between Colonel Steinberger and Gen. Wright clearly proves, all of which was cheerfully exhibited by Col. Steinberger for my careful examination. And at my earliest convenience I shall be happy to be my pleasing duty on behalf of the whole population of Washington Territory to present my sincere thanks to Gen. Wright and to Col. Steinberger, for their very prompt and vigorous preparations already made by them for protecting the lives and property of our citizens, and for their well meant endeavors to secure the preservation of law and order.

In connection herewith I ought to state that on the 27th May I called upon [illegible] Bell, on board of his Flag ship at the Naval Station on Mare Island, near San Francisco, for the purpose of requesting his Naval protection of the sea board, and all the inland navigable waters of Washington Territory, with such vessels of the U. S. Navy as are now, and may hereafter be placed under his command, when I was very much gratified at finding him watchful, ready and cheerfully willing, to render all immediate naval protection in his power to every part of the Pacific Coast and navigable waters [illegible]

And I ought also to state that during our voyage together from New York to San Francisco, I had great satisfaction in frequent lengthy conversations [illegible] relatively connecting subjects, with Commander Selfridge, now appointed Commandant of the United States Navy Yard at Mare Island, I always found him a very [illegible] an experienced and loyal Naval [illegible]

With such active and vigilant [illegible] as Gen. Wright, Flag officer Bell and [illegible] Selfridge, in my humble judgment, the [illegible] administration on our Pacific Coast [illegible] substantial reasons for feeling [illegible] well protected as can possibly be [illegible] with the military and naval [illegible] placed under the direction and control of those very gentlemanly, well qualified, experienced and loyal officers.

Full Details of News.

The Norfolk Daybook, which was suspended by [illegible] has reappeared, the [illegible] being removed.

A [illegible] order has been issued, prohibiting the transportation of any kind of goods to Norfolk, Portsmouth and Gosport. Neither will any vessel be permitted to go to the above places, or any other place on either side of Hampton Roads, except by consent of the commanding General. Any violation of this order subjects the rebels and goods to seizure and confiscation, and persons who may cause a violation are to be severely punished. This stringent order is necessary in consequence of [illegible] violations of the former.

A disturbance occurred at Norfolk last night between negroes and Company C of the 99th Regiment. Three negroes were killed, and two or three wounded.

CHICAGO, May 26.—The Petersburg, Va., Express of the 22d contains the following dispatch from Augusta, under date of May 21st: The Charleston papers this morning state that four vessels shelled Coligate and Keawah Islands yesterday. The Confederates retired after burning their quarters.

Coligate is 12 or 15 miles from Charleston.

FORT MONROE, May 28.—The Naugatuck from City Point brings dispatches for the Navy Department; our fleet in the James River is ready to make another attack on Fort Darling as soon as orders are given. The rebels have materially increased their force on the south bank of the James river from City Point up to Richmond and have forced the inhabitants on City Point and vicinity to retire into the interior.

The rebels seemed to dread an attack on Petersburg, and accordingly are improving the defences on the Appomattox river.

Beauregard had visited Richmond, not to command there, but to confer with the rebel leaders concerning future military operations in the southwest.

A deserter from a Tennessee regiment reports the main body of the rebel army on the north side of the railroad, at Richmond. They claim to have one hundred and fifty thousand men but deserters think eighty thousand is nearer correct. Much dissatisfaction exists on account of the conscription list.

WASHINGTON, May 28.—The Government entertains expectations that in pursuance of the plans laid out before Banks' retreat, and which are now being carried out, the rebel forces who ventured up the Shenandoah will be captured.

BALTIMORE, May 28.—The American to day says that Gen. Banks has already received reinforcements of 18,000 well drilled troops. Several car loads of heavy siege guns have also been sent to him from the Washington Navy Yard.

WASHINGTON, May 29th.—Dispatches from McClellan to night says he has captured Hanover.

A movement to day, by Gen. Porter's division of McClellan's army resulted in the cutting off railroad communication with Richmond, at a new and important point, which will undoubtedly tend to the discomfiture of the rebels. This probably resulted in the capture of Hanover Court House.

McClellan telegraphs to the War Department that the battle at Hanover Court House resulted in the complete rout of the rebels. Their loss is set down at 1,000. Our loss was 375 killed, wounded and missing, of which 53 were killed by the forces opposed to us principally from Georgia and North Carolina.

Gen. Butler has issued an order that the circulation of Confederate bills must cease on the 27th. All sales and transfers of property after that date, in consideration of such notes or bills to be void, and the property confiscated to the United States.

Another order suppresses the Bee for the publication of an article in favor of the burning of cotton. The Delta office has been taken possession of for an article discussing the cotton question.

Six prisoners have been sentenced to be shot for violation of parole.

[illegible] had arrived from Plaquemine, with quantities of provisions from the interior.

CAIRO, 29.—A brisk bombardment from two of our mortar boats opened upon the rebel works yesterday, and continued at intervals to five minutes [illegible] which was responded to by the rebels, with [illegible] damage.

A letter from an officer of McClellan's staff, says that Mrs. General Lee and her two daughters were [illegible] Old Church, and sent to White House.

Gov. Shorter, of Ala. has called out all the male population not subject to conscription by the law [illegible] State Guard.

CHICAGO, May 31.—Corinth was evacuated on the night of the 29th. The Federals occupied the place [illegible] morning.

WASHINGTON, May 28.—A motion was pending before the House yesterday to reconsider the vote by which the bill for the emancipation of slaves was rejected on Monday. An attempt was made to lay the motion on the table, which was lost by 69 to 73. The vote on the [illegible] will take place on Wednesday next.

A special dispatch to the New York [illegible] says that the new treaty with Mexico has just been received. Its [illegible] the Government [illegible] will undoubtedly be rejected by the Senate when submitted.

NEW YORK, 28.—A letter from [illegible] says that a bark which had been lying there for some weeks put to sea with nearly 400 contrabands for the West Indies. The gunboat Wamsutta has gone in pursuit.

The Newbern Progress says: The Convention at Raleigh voted down by a vote of 41 to 31 the measure declaring punishing any one counseling any proposition to reinstate the old North State into the Union. Speeches were made in favor of free labor, and seriously agitating the subject of urging the Federal Government to confiscate the states of the rebels.

Sick and wounded men who escaped from Strasburg confirm the statements made of rebel barbarities. They deliberately attacked our sick, bringing into ambulances and upon hunting men incapable of making any resistance.

WASHINGTON, May 29.—Special dispatches to the New York papers state that the Overland Mail Company will resume the transportation of letters in fifteen days. Papers and documents will go via Panama, under the arrangement of this Company with Vanderbilt, who is to receive one hundred and fifty thousand dollars yearly for such service.

The latest direct accounts of Mexican affairs to May 11, places the French force at twelve miles from Puebla, with 15,000 Mexicans ready to give them battle.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., May 29.—Governor Sprague was elected United States Senator, yesterday, by a majority of 81.

In the House, to day, Mr. Crisfield, from the Committee on Public Lands, reported and advocated a bill granting to the State of California a tract of land known as the Colorado Desert, for the purpose of introducing a sufficient supply of fresh water upon and over the same. The bill was referred to the Committee of the Whole.

Senate bill, establishing Land Offices in Colorado, passed the House to day. The House also passed a bill—94 to 27—declaring California entitled to three representatives instead of two, the extra number beginning next Congress.

WASHINGTON, June 2d.—A dispatch has been received by the War Department from General McClellan, dated noon, to day, which says that yesterday at ten o'clock, the enemy, taking advantage of the terrible storm which flooded the valley of the Chickahominy, attacked our right flank.

General Casey's division, which was in the first line, gave way, causing temporary confusion during which the guns and baggage were lost.

But Gen. Heintzelman and Gen. Kearny most gallantly brought up their troops which checked the enemy.

At the same time the divisions of General Sedgewick and Gen. Richardson were brought across the river and drove back the enemy at the point of the bayonet, covering the ground with his dead.

This morning the rebels attempted to renew the conflict, but were everywhere repulsed.

We have taken many prisoners, among them Gen. Pettigrew and Col. Long. Our loss is heavy, and the enemy's must be enormous. Excepting Gen. Casey's division the men behaved splendidly, and several fine bayonet charges were made.

NEW YORK, 1st.—The prize steamer Pallas from London, arrived to day, having been captured by the blockading squadron on the 29th off Charleston. The vessel and cargo are valued at $400,000.

The Baltic from Key West arrived at Pensacola. The advices state that the residents welcomed the Federal troops joyfully.

New Orleans [illegible] to the 22d have been received. Gen. Shepley had assumed the duties of Mayor, and Major Bell those of [illegible] [illegible] the city until [illegible] [illegible] Bank of [illegible] commercial business [illegible] [illegible] last [illegible]

CHICAGO, June 2, 1862.

Dispatches from Corinth say that our cavalry found all the tents of the enemy standing, and they took hundreds of barrels of [illegible] and five thousand stands of arms in an encampment on the line of the Mobile and Ohio Railroad, said to be [illegible] Generals Van Dorn and Price, who left there Saturday night. Our cavalry have found the rebels in a strong position with artillery, [illegible] supported by infantry, on the several roads leading out of Corinth. The rebels [illegible] moving their sick and wounded first with Beauregard and Bragg did not leave till Thursday.

Letters from Corinth state that the evacuation of the place commenced early in the week, and was carried on in good order till our forces crowded too fast, when they were obliged to flee precipitately. It is understood that about half of the enemy's force went South on the Mobile and Ohio Railroad. Another body, supposed to be in the [illegible] another body, supposed to number 30,000, went to Grand Junction, and from thence fifteen thousand to Kossuth.

After the rebel force had passed down thus causing a division of their forces, as above stated, that part of the rebel force which went to Kossuth had to march on foot, in consequence of the insufficiency of transportation, and will probably be captured, as a large force of cavalry is in pursuit. It is not presumed that the part which went to the Grand Junction will make any stand there, but move down the Mississippi Central Railroad to Jackson and thence via the Southern road to Jackson and thence via the Southern road to Meridian on the Mobile and Ohio road, forming a junction with those who moved down the latter road direct. The impression prevails that the destination of this whole force is Richmond, which they can reach via Mobile.

An expedition, 2,000 strong, of Federal cavalry, was sent out Wednesday night, to destroy the bridge of the Mobile and Ohio Railroad, 30 miles south of Corinth, and after forced marches by day and night through a very difficult country they finally succeeded in reaching the Railroad at Booneville and destroyed the track in many places south and north of the town. They blew up one culvert and destroyed the switch and track and burned up the depot. A large amount of commissary stores were captured together with the equipages of artillery. They took several hundred prisoners, and found 2,000 sick wounded at Booneville.

At the depot they destroyed a locomotive and a train of 26 cars, loaded with supplies of every kind. They destroyed 10,000 stands of small arms and a great quantity of clothing, and paroled 2,000 prisoners. The enemy had heard of the movement, and had a train of box cars, with flying artillery and 500 infantry running up and down the road but did not succeed in preventing the complete success of the enterprise. The result will be embarrassing to the enemy, and contribute greatly to their loss and demoralization.

CORINTH, June 2.—Memphis refugees say that all the papers have been removed to Grenada, Miss.

Residents of Corinth say that the rebels before leaving, destroyed the bridge across Cypress Creek, under a misapprehension making it necessary to destroy seven locomotives and as many trains loaded with Commissary and Quartermaster stores.

Dispatches from Fort Wright state positively that the work of dismounting it of its guns had been commenced by the rebels there on Saturday, and that by to night the fortifications will be completely evacuated.

WASHINGTON, 2d.—Halleck telegraphs that the evacuation of Corinth commenced on Wednesday, and was completed Thursday night, but in great haste, as an immense amount of property was destroyed and abandoned. No troops had left Corinth for Richmond unless they had done so on those two days.

It is stated that dispatches have been received by the War Department, from General McClellan, which indicate the speedy occupation of Richmond.

All the news received to-day is favorable, and the latest advices in regard to the fight before Richmond, on Saturday, represent the battle as of great importance and that the Union success was undoubted.

Dispatches of an unofficial character, received from the headquarters of the Army of the Potomac, say the importance and dimensions of our victory increase as the particulars are developed.

During the whole time of the battle before Richmond every movement of the enemy was reported from a balloon two thousand feet in the air, which connected with the headquarters of Gen. McClellan by telegraph. This is believed to be the first balloon reconnoissance ever successfully made during a battle, and is certainly the first time that a telegraph station was established in the air to report movements of the enemy and progress of the battle.

BALTIMORE, June 2.—The total loss—except in cavalry, which is light—sustained in the late retreat of Banks' Division, sums up 32 killed, 122 wounded, and 622 missing.

A gentleman who escaped from Winchester last Thursday, says Col. Kentry, and a great portion of his command, were then there as prisoners, and that many of the rumors in regard to the rebels' barbarous treatment are unfounded.

CHICAGO, June 2.—Mobile papers of the 26th, found in the rebel camp at Corinth, contain a dispatch from Charleston, stating that the Federal fleet had just passed two batteries in Stono River and are within eight miles of the city, where great excitement existed.

FORT MONROE, June 2d.—According to the statement of prisoners brought down yesterday, P. M., the object of the enemy's attack on McClellan's left wing, yesterday, was to reach the river and thus cut off our line of communication. This was the purport of an address to the troops before leaving Richmond in the morning.

European Intelligence.

The Eureka, from Liverpool on the 17th and Queenstown on the 18th, has arrived here. The Times editorially says the advantage gained in the West by the Federals have been such as to make it impossible to overrate them, and are in singular contrast to the slow progress in Virginia. It also expatiates on the capture of New Orleans, and says the North has a right to presume the hour of final success is approaching. It also says the rebels are apparently as determined as ever, but from the manner in which their military leaders have allowed themselves to be worsted on the Mississippi, the confidence of their people and foreigners must be shaken in their ultimate success.

The Spanish authorities in Mexico notified Juarez of their intention to leave the country. The latter responded, calling their conduct and offering them complete satisfaction.

The Morning Herald says that Richmond must be defended at all hazards, as it is universally admitted that if that city falls the country on the eastern seaboard is lost to the Confederates. It is hoped, no doubt that the Federal victory was so late in the season that the victorious would be so shattered that time would be required for reorganization which would make further operations this summer impossible.

The Times advocates the policy of getting cotton from New Orleans instead of Beaufort in order that supplies may come from planters who still assert their allegiance to the Southern cause.

PROFITABLE CROP.—The Statesman says that L. Bonner, a farmer in Walla Walla valley, sowed fifty acres of barley last season, which produced a crop of upwards of [illegible] bushels to the acre—something over [illegible] thousand bushels. The whole crop cost him a little more than seven cents per bushel, or about $11,000.

OBITUARY.

[illegible] to chronicle this morning, the death of a worthy and esteemed citizen, Mr. [illegible] Girty, first engineer of the O. S. N. Co.'s steamer Tenino. The circumstances attending the sickness and death of Mr. Girty are stated substantially as follows: On a trip of the steamer Tenino, from Deschutes to Lewiston, the portion of the engine called the eccentric rod gave way, and no resource was left but to "work the engine" by hand. This laborious task Mr. Girty performed for three successive days and on his arrival at Lewiston he was attacked with a severe fit of pleurisy, from which he partially recovered, but a relapse proved fatal. Mr. Girty was a young man of great promise and had a reputation worthy of his profession; he was at all times cautious in the performance of his duty and conscientious of the responsibility resting upon him as an engineer. During the past winter, when the flood, which the people of Oregon will long remember, was increasing in fury at Deschutes, and when the steamer Tenino was then lying under the care of Mr. Girty the engine having been taken apart for repairs, when he saw the imminent danger to which the steamer was then exposed, he, without the aid of and other mechanic, in the space of a few hours, replaced the engine and got up steam with the view of meeting the emergency in case the steamer should break from her moorings. He determined, without the assistance of any competent person, to set the engine to work, and then take the wheel and if possible land the steamer in a safe harbor. This act of determination was performed during night time and continued until morning, when daylight and the aid of more fastenings, released him from the anxiety through which he passed. Mr. Girty was about 32 years of age, and formerly resided in Wayne Co. Michigan, from which country he emigrated during the year of 1851.

POWDER RIVER. — The Walla Walla [illegible] of May [illegible] says the evidence [illegible] of Powder river [illegible] Prospecting [illegible] twelve miles [illegible] The Statesman learns from [illegible] left Powder river May 27th [illegible] items.

Mr. Kirkpatrick and party [illegible] had got their sluices set [illegible] it work on the [illegible] they took out $[illegible] out $74 [illegible] sp[illegible] ounces from this claim [illegible] dollar. The gold [illegible] coarse, and, to all appearances, of [illegible] quality.

Mitchell Kraffel and [illegible] opened a claim [illegible] gulch (under the old diggings) [illegible] were working with a rocker [illegible] day $17, second day $27, and third day $[illegible]. The gold is coarse here also.

A town site was laid out [illegible] on a flat about four and a half [illegible] Griffin's Gulch, at the [illegible] you had Freeze Out [illegible] in sinking a hole to obtain water found a prospect of fifty cents to the pan. The whole town site was taken up within a few hours after the discovery [illegible] mining [illegible] the excited claimants immediately set about preparing [illegible] to work on them. This occurred as Mr. K. was about leaving with the express.

New diggings were being found every day. The roads are yet in bad condition, and the streams throughout the Powder river valley are very high. No ferries established yet. The old emigrant road, in the Grand Ronde valley, was mostly overflown, and traveling over it is impossible for the present [illegible] pack animals can travel to the mines by keeping along the foot hills.

One or two prospecting parties returned on Monday, reporting that they had found several quartz lodes somewhere up in the mountains, which they supposed would pay well for working.

SALMON RIVER. — We make the following extracts from a private letter from Salmon river:

SALMON RIVER, May 18, 1862.

The mines pay quite as well as men of sense here anticipate. As high as thirty-one pounds have been taken from one claim in a single day.

A large number of men have lately been out salmon hunting, fishing, and prospecting. Some of them have returned and report [illegible] erable prospects' — better than Elk City or Oro Fino, but not so good as the old Salmon river mines. They report deep snow at the heads of the creeks and a flood of waters in the gulches.

Trains are getting in every day, and gold are coming down.

D., late in the Hungarian Revolutionary War, Chief Physician to the 20th Regiment of Honveds, Chief Surgeon to the Military Hospital of Pesth, Hungary, the late Lecturer on diseases of the Urinary Organs and Diseases of Women and Children, and Honorary Member of the Philadelphia College of Medicine.

Particular attention paid to the treatment of diseases peculiar to Women and Children.

Office Hours — From 9 A. M. to [illegible] P. M.

Communications strictly confidential. Permanent cure guaranteed, or no pay. Consultations by letter or otherwise FREE.

Address, DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco.

Of all diseases the first great cause
Springs from neglect of Nature's laws.

To the Afflicted!

Suffer not when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret diseases—Self Abuse, Nervous Debility, Syphilis in all its stages, Strictures, Gleet, Gonorrhea, Diabetes, Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism, Scrofula, Pains in the Bones and Ankles, diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Nose and Eyes, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs, Cancers, Dropsy, Epileptic Fits, St. Vitus Dance, and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs—such as Nervous Trembling, Loss of Memory, Loss of Power, General Weakness, Dimness of Vision with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, Loss of Sight, Wakefulness, Dyspepsia, Liver Diseases, Eruptions upon the Face, Pains in the Back and Head, Female Irregularities—and all improper discharges of both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or obstinate the case, recovery is certain and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment, even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians and resisted all their means of cure. The medicines [illegible] pleasant, without odor, entirely vegetable, causing no sickness and free from mercury or balsam. During fifteen years of practice in Europe, the Atlantic States and California, I have rescued from the jaws of death many thousands who in the last stages of the above mentioned diseases had been given up to die by their physicians, which warrants me in promising to the afflicted who may place themselves under my care a speedy and permanent cure. Private diseases are the greatest enemies to health, as they are the first cause of consumption, scrofula and many other diseases, and should be a terror to the human family. A permanent cure is scarcely ever effected—a majority of cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons, who not only fail to cure the disease but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury, which with the disease hastens the sufferer into a rapid consumption.

But should the disease and the treatment not cause death speedily and the victim marries, the disease is entailed upon the children, who are born with feeble constitutions, and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in scrofula, tetter, ulcers, eruptions and other affections of the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave.

Self abuse is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread calendar of human diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system—drawing its thousands of victims through a few years of suffering down to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the full confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of self abuse that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and with the abandonment of ruinous practices my patients can be restored to robust vigorous health.

[illegible] all diseases [illegible] fifteen years of practice [illegible] by thousands of the most reliable cures [illegible] Washington [illegible] by patients [illegible]

MARYSVILLE, June 24, 1856.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco—Sir: I have used the last of your medicine, and do not think I shall need any more, as I feel very well except that I have not entirely got my strength yet, but as well with the appetite I have. It is just three weeks, as you may recollect, since I called at your institute with my constitution, as I thought, broken entirely, and never thought you would be able to cure me perfectly [illegible] I was so weak that I could not get excited and tremble at everything. Now what you know what I expected, you may judge. I am satisfied [illegible] complete recovery from those [illegible] and blotches from my skin [illegible] I cannot tell you which is the greatest [illegible] my surprise, for except not having fully got my strength I feel as well as any man can feel.

Enclosed I send you twenty dollars, over your charge, and think myself cheaply cured. If you think anybody will be benefited, you may put this letter in the newspapers. I remain gratefully yours,

THOMAS HAYDES.

Thankfulness is the incentive to gratitude.

CERTIFICATE — Prompted by an honest desire of my heart, I wish to lay before the public a case which deserves consideration [illegible] of scientific skill, but that of humanity also. About two years ago, I suddenly, and from causes unknown to me, was seized with a fit of epilepsy, which owing to my inability to meet the expenses consequent upon a thorough medical treatment, and the discouragement with which I met with an attempting it, soon became such as was then I [illegible] believe, as to defy the skill of my physician. I was frequently, while in pursuit of my calling, thrown down to the ground without the slightest warning, and although mostly able to the agonies, I yet dreaded the miseries of my life and soon learned to look upon those who would render assistance or shelter me from danger as the ones who sought to prolong the existence of my misery. While in this state, and having previous to my affliction tasted the sweets of life, I once more was induced to attempt seeking aid of a physician, and by recommendation, called upon Dr. L. J. Czapkay. I told him of my circumstances, and of my inability to reward him for his services, regardless of which he nevertheless at once undertook my case, and with the blessing [illegible] I was once more restored to perfect health. I am left [illegible] reward him [illegible] for the boon which I enjoy at present, and [illegible] my heartfelt thanks, I consider it [illegible] to make the case public in order that those in need of medical advice may find a physician in whom every confidence can be placed.
